West Germany - Arab States: German emissaries to Egypt and Algeria believe they are having some success in damping down Arab reaction to the coming establishment of German-Israeli diplomatic relations.

25X1

The German ambassador in Algiers has said he was told by Algerian officials that the question of recognizing East Germany would not arise for the time being. Bundestag deputy Hans-Juergen Wischnewski, Bonn's special emissary to Algiers, has found Foreign Minister Bouteflika concerned over the West German ability to obstruct Algerian ties with the Common Market. Wischnewski apparently has also hinted at economic rewards for restraint.

The Germans also are reported trying to influence government officials in Syria and Saudi Arabia to take a moderate line.

NOTES

Bolivia: [The military junta is concerned that political violence may erupt on 9 April, adding to the already dangerous situation created by labor unrest. On that date, the Nationalist Revolutionary Movement (MNR) celebrates the anniversary of its 1952 revolution. The junta believes the rightist Bolivian Socialist Falange will use force to break up expected MNR demonstrations. Clashes between these bitterly opposed parties would probably reinforce junta opinion that further postponement of the elections may be required.]
